The Auction was a Great Success!!

Three of our community leaders kindly came out to judge the dessert contest portion of the Gilead Christian School Annual Benefit Auction on Saturday, May 6.

Sheriff John Hinton, State Representative for the Ohio House Wes Goodman and Mayor of Cardington Susan Peyton.

From the several amazing desserts entered, the judges chose Tara Hupp as our grand prize winner with her carrot cake. Our other top winners in each category were Katalina Myers with a strawberry cake, Cassidy Gamble with a lemony cheesecake, Lisa Crothers with a grasshopper cheesecake, Elizabeth Swartzentruber with a cherry pie and Aleta Jones with a Chocolate and Peanut Butter Drip cake. These top winners were then auctioned off in our live auction.

Attention North Campus Families:

Our Awards Chapel that was on the yearly calendar for Wednesday, May 31st, has been moved to Tuesday, May 30th at 7:00pm, in the North Campus gym. We will be coordinating our North Campus “Awards Chapel” with the Spring Program. During the Spring Program the fifth grade students will have their Nation Notebook boards available for viewing. Mrs. Millinger will also have several art pieces available for families to view. It will be an amazing evening full of talent, fellowship, and fun. We hope you can come and enjoy the wonderful evening that has been prepared for you. See you on the 30th!!

Blessings,
Mrs. Baker

North Campus Parents,

There will be a signup coming out shortly from the PTO to request assistance with Field Day on the afternoon of Friday, May 26. Please be on the lookout for the email with that information in the coming days. We will be in need of 12 parent volunteers to assist with activities that day.

Thanks,
Mr. McKee, Elementary PE Teacher
